KENTUCKY COUNTER OPENS TUESDAY.

Washington, June 14.—The treaty by which the United States will annex the Hawaiian Islands has been concluded and will be sent to the Senate on Wednesday. All the territory known as the crown lands is ceded to the United States and will probably be made use of to provide for the maintenance of the deposed queen and the Princess Kihlani.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Are Indulged By Kentucky Aspirants for Office.

Washington, June 14.—The Kentucky contingent of office seekers are indulging in great expectations for the early days after the President's return from Nashville. It is believed some of the more important appointments will be disposed of by the President.

TWO MEN KILLED.

The French-Loversole Vendetta Comes to the Front.

Middlesboro, June 13.—Near Big Stone Gap a mob attacked a constable and posse and one of the posse shot and killed Frank Kelly, French-Loversole leader. Before his death Kelly succeeded in cutting the life out of Constable Hollender and shooting Frank Biggs. More individuals are feared, as the county is greatly excited.

EARTHQUAKES.

Great Damage Wrought by Them in India.

Calcutta, June 14.—The damage and loss of life caused by recent earthquakes throughout this section has been immense. As the news is received from the interior the story of the horror becomes more and more appalling. Whole villages have been destroyed, buildings wrecked in many other places and the loss of life will undoubtedly amount to several hundred.

MURDERERS CAUGHT.

Tom Jackson and Wm. Johnson in Jail at Memphis.

They are the Supposed Murderers of Will Posey.

Two colored roustabouts giving the names Tom Jackson and William Johnson are under arrest at Memphis on a charge of killing Will Posey here Saturday night a week ago in the cooper shop near First and Washington streets.

Posey and Grant Stevenson, both of who had been roustabouts on the John K. Speed, engaged in an altercation over a pair of shoes and Posey was stabbed, dying the following day in the city hospital. He said before he died that there were two of the assassins. Both escaped and a few days ago Marshal Collins received a letter notifying him that both of the men were again on the Speed, having caught her at Vicksburg, Miss., as she was en route up the river.

The two men were pointed out to officers at Memphis night before last by the mate on the Speed when she reached there, and arrested. They agreed to return to Paducah without a requisition, claiming they were not the ones wanted, and afterwards refused, but consented to be taken to Cairo. They admit to killing a negro about the same time on the levee there, and a killing did occur there about the same time Posey's murder occurred here. They answer the description of the men wanted here, however, and may have committed both deeds. There is some mystery about the matter, but the Speed will be here tonight, and the mate can no doubt clear the mystery, as he is the one who wrote Marshal Collins, and knows all about the men.

COURT AT BENTON.

Judge Bishop and Attorney W. F. Bradshaw Leave for Marshall.

Judge Bishop and Commissioner's Attorney Bradshaw left this morning for Benton to open circuit court. Today and tomorrow will be consumed in unpunishing the grand and petit juries and it will likely be several days before the Noah Franklin case is taken up.

AN AMATEUR GAME.

Yesterday afternoon six innings of a game between the Ravens, or Reserves, of Paducah, and the Millers, of Metropolis, were played at the Rowlanddown park, in the presence of a good crowd. The score stood 28 to 27 in favor of the Metropolis club, when John Robertson, short stop and pitcher for the Paducah club, was overcome by the heat, and in the excitement the game broke up.

A FREE MAN.

He No Longer Has a Body-guard.

It is Said Will Return to Live With His Wife.

Mr. J. H. Willis, who has had charge of Oliver Allard as guard since conservators were appointed for him at Metropolis several months since, turned him over to the court Saturday and he was made a free man again, during his good behavior.

He has split drinking entirely and visited his wife yesterday, and it is said they will be reconciled and again live together. Good feeling has been fully restored, and it now looks like Allard, whose future was so gloomy only a few months ago, will soon be on top again. He has just returned from Crest Springs.

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Mrs. Shelton Walks After Two Years.

HEALED BY A BOY.

Charles Brown, the Boy Faith Curist, Commands Her to Walk.

SAYS SHE BELIEVES SHE IS CURED.

People of West Jackson street marvel at an alleged cure that was effected in the locality Saturday afternoon by Charles Brown, the boy faith curist from Marion, who has been here with his father, W. M. Brown, for a few weeks past.

Mrs. Shelton, a well known widow of Eight and Jackson streets, had been bed-ridden for two years until Saturday, and her right hand was withered and paralyzed to such an extent that she lost use entirely of it. Saturday the boy preacher visited her and commanded her to arise and walk.

After being assisted she did so and for the first time in two years is able to leave her bed and move about. She stated to a St. representative this morning that she believed she was practically cured. As to her being benefited, there is no doubt of it, as today she was able to use her hitherto useless hand, and wrote a letter for the first time since her affliction.

There is no little excitement in the vicinity, and this afternoon other experiments will be essayed through the alleged divine influence of the boy, who is only fourteen years old, and has attracted considerable attention in the state.

A WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Attempts to Take the Life of the President of France.

Paris, June 14.—An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Felix Faure, President of the French republic, while he was en route to Long Champs to witness the Grand Prix.

While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thick fog near La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Boulogne, a bomb, which subsequently proved to be a placebo, falling about six inches long and two inches in diameter, with a thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swan shot, exploded.

No one was injured by the explosion. A man in the crowd, suspected as the prime mover, was arrested. He gave his name as Gallet and made only the briefest replies to questions put to him by the police.

Gallet said he had no occupation, but resided at 11 Avenue de la Republique. The police are making a thorough search of his lodgings. He is believed to be insane, for he shouted as the carriage passed along so loudly as to attract general attention in the crowd. The police have also made another arrest, in this case a youth, but it is thought probable that the actual culprit escaped.

THE YELLOW SCOURGE.

Makes Its Appearance at an Atlantic and Pacific Port.

New York, June 13.—Otto Wernerson, one of the passengers of the steamer Advance, was transferred to the Swinburne Island Hospital last night suffering from yellow fever. Wernerson was one of the survivors of the British ship Backhurst, which took fire and was abandoned in mid-ocean, while on the voyage from Newcastle, N. S. W., for Panama. Wernerson was taken sick at sea two or three days before the steamer arrived at this port. He was removed with the rest of the second cabin passengers to Hoffman island for observation. The patient showed no marked symptoms of the fever until yesterday. Today he grew rapidly worse, and at 8 p. m. died.

There are forty-eight passengers at Hoffman island. They will be detained there the usual five days.

San Francisco, June 13.—The City of Para arrived today from Panama flying the yellow flag, and was immediately ordered into quarantine. When one day out from Panama one of the passengers, Mrs. Mitchell, died of yellow fever, and a few days later Capt. Metcalf also died. About twenty passengers came into port, none having symptoms of the disease.

DISORDERLY HOUSE.

Charged Against a Well Known Saloon Keeper.

A BAD BARNEY WARRANTED.

Capt. Newt Roberts' Trial Set for This Afternoon.

DULL IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Phil Stephen, the well known saloon keeper whose establishment is on Washington street near Ninth, was warranted this morning by Judge Sanders for keeping a disorderly house, where vices of various kinds are alleged to exist and flourish.

Officer William Johnson furnished the information on which the warrant was drawn, and the trial will probably take place tomorrow.

Zeno Williams, colored, was warranted this morning by Judge Sanders for disorderly conduct, consisting of throwing stones at "Doctor" Johnson, a well known old colored man of the First ward, who has frequently complained of being annoyed in this way.

The case against Robert Hays, the dairyman's son, charged with carrying concealed a pistol, who was arrested at the baseball park Sunday, a week ago, will come up before Justice Winchester tomorrow.

County Judge Tully will try Thompson and Allison Trice, the boys who stole the keg of beer, this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

The case against Capt. Newt Roberts, charged with a breach of the peace, is set for 3:30 o'clock this afternoon before Justice Winchester. He is charged with engaging in a difficulty with Mr. Tom Everett Saturday night a week ago, and is now out. The case against Mr. Everett will likely come up before Justice Little tomorrow sometime.

There was nothing of interest in the circuit clerk's office today. No suits have been filed for sometime and it is over three months until court.

BOLD THIEVES.

Colored Boys Steal a Keg of Beer.

ADMIT IT IN COURT.

Dee Halsey and Allison Trice Held Over for the Offense.

ONE BOY WAS RELEASED.

Dee Halsey, alias Thomas, Allison Trice and Richard Lefroy, three colored boys, were arraigned in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of stealing a keg of beer from Mr. George Ochschiager's wagon near Ninth and Trimble Saturday night.

The first two pleaded guilty, but Lefroy said he had nothing to do with the theft, and evidence was heard on the subject. Halsey was first questioned. He said he saw the keg on the wagon, which was standing in the alley, and lifting it off the wagon he carried it to the nearest fence and rolled it over.

Lefroy started for a spigot and hatchet he says, but there was no proof of this, and Judge Sanders dismissed the warrant against Lefroy. Trice and Halsey, however, were held over. The latter is one of the most notorious of the younger criminals, and Judge Sanders has often predicted that he will be hung or sent to the penitentiary before he is twenty-one.

ACCIDENTS.

A Few Slight Ones Reported To-Day.

Two Young Men Injured by Bicycle Falls Yesterday.

Mr. Earl Walters, clerk at El Gochrie's, was thrown from his bicycle on the Cairo road yesterday and had his right limb painfullyrenched, necessitating a stick in navigation.

Clyde Cooper, the carpenter, is coming from a bad eye. While resting on a bench a day or two ago a piece of steel struck him in the right eye and lodged there.

Dr. B. T. Frank, while driving near Sixth and Broadway Saturday night about 8 o'clock, had a narrow escape from death. His horse shied at the Jackson street car and shied in such a way as to result in a collision with the car. The vehicle was partially demolished and the doctor was violently thrown out and rendered unconscious. He was carried into the Boyd-White infirmary, but no bones were broken, and he was found to be only painfully bruised.

Master Ollie Allard, son of Mrs. Fannie Allard, of North Fifth street, received a hard fall from a bicycle yesterday and sustained a painful injury of the hip.

Len Dale, the 17-year-old son of Mr. Bnd Dale, was painfully injured in Massaw creek yesterday afternoon while in bathing. In the creek were the fragments of several glass jars, exploded by lime when a search was recently being made for a boy who was drowned. The young man was severely cut near the knee by the glass.

Marshal Collins is today working on another horse stealing case, and expects before many hours have elapsed to have another horse thief in port.

THIRD DEATH.

Another of a Poverty Stricken Family Gone.

Jimmie Pardee Dies of Measles—Two Others Died Last Week.

Jimmie Pardee, aged 16, died at 1125 South Third street last night of measles.

This is the third death to occur in the family, which is deplorably poverty stricken, within one week. A few days ago two of the children, Ellen Pardee and Dolph Blunk, died of the same malady at the same time, on beds of splendor, and were buried in Potter's field in the same grave. Last night the third succumbed. The remains were buried in the county graveyard last afternoon.

The family is being taken care of by charitable neighbors, and is in very destitute circumstances. The people came down the river on a shanty boat some time since.

an excuse to acquire them. They are knocking for admittance and the people of this country will generally look with pleasure upon favorable action by the government. Let it open the door and Hawaii will give us the forty-fifth star in our flag.

"This government is making preparations for an active movement to offset the action of England, France, Germany and Belgium against the admission of American cattle and levying unreasonable and burdensome regulations on shipments thereof and of American meats. The ministers to these four countries have been instructed to enter protests at the various courts to which they are accredited and if possible to induce modifications of the regulations. The excuse given for these restrictions and regulations is that they are necessary to prevent the importation of diseases to which American cattle are subject, and of diseased meats against which it is desired to protect themselves. The rigid regulations of food in this country, however, are known to be sufficient to ward off any possible danger from such causes. Should one's vigorous protests and representations fail to effect the desired modification of regulations the effort will be to devise some retaliatory measure that will be effective.

The sop thrown to the cotton planters by the imposition of a tariff on raw cotton is the worst sort of forgery. There is no cotton on earth that can compete with American cotton, and we export as much as we use. Besides, what does it profit the K nutty farmer to have a tariff on cotton?—[Register.]

The Sun is not specially defending the cotton tariff and is not prepared to say how it will benefit the cotton raiser. It will say, however, that if the producer of cotton is benefited thereby the whole country will be indirectly benefited. The tariff amendment was added at the instance of a southern Senator and supported by no less than six Senators from that section in the belief that it would be of benefit. There is one class of cotton very little raised here, and which is largely imported from Egypt, and the growing of which is being successfully prosecuted, but requires a tariff to enable it to compete with the Egyptian article. This is the long staple, and men interested in this article claim that its development will be of great benefit and have been asking for protection in the hope of extending it. If the effect of the cotton tariff is nil, as predicted by the free traders, no one will be harmed thereby. If it has the effect of developing this new branch of the industry, an important advantage will have been gained.

In his veto message the Mayor says repeatedly he is in favor of a system of sewerage. The average Paducahan will consider that he has a very poor way of showing it. He presents a number of objections to the ordinance, most of which appear to be merely factions and no more important than can be urged against any proposed public improvement at any one time. No sewerage ordinance will ever be provided, against which objection cannot be urged by the croakers and mossbacks; no time will ever come when all will be ready for the improvement. One of the reasons given by the Mayor for his veto is that he finds many opposed to the ordinance. If we wait to convert every man or nearly every man to favor the project, we will never have public improvement of any kind. It is not by unanimous consent that public improvements are made anywhere. Were this requisite there would be little of it done. There are always enough mossbacks and croakers in any community to retard any proposed advance if we stop to hear them. It is always and in all places by overlooking a large opposition that public improvements are made. One cannot help reading between the lines of the Mayor's message that he is influenced in his action by an ulterior motive which he has not given. He well knows that the sentiment of the property holders of the city is overwhelmingly in favor of the ordinance.

When the McKinley bill was under discussion in 1892, Democrats were loud in their protestations that it was a fraud in so far as it proposed a duty on American tin plate, and asserted that no tin plate could or would be made in this country; that the only effect of the tariff on tin would be to raise the price of the article, and great capital was made out of the laborer's little dinner plate which was to be enhanced in price till it would be a burden for him to buy it. The results have given the lie to every prognostication made by them in that connection. Tin did not go up in price so far as the consumer was concerned and the laborer bought his little tin plate at the same old price. But something else of vast importance did happen. Plants for the manufacture of tin and tinne plates were set up in various places, rich deposits of tin were discovered in various parts of the West, millions of capital was invested and thousands of laborers employed at good wages in the new industry; and notwithstanding the important fact back the industry received by the repeal of the McKinley duties on tin plate the industry has flourished reasonably and the production of American tin plate has grown to the enormous dimensions of 307,000,000 pounds in 1896. Far more American than foreign tin plate is now used in this country. So much for a Democratic judgment and prediction on the subject of a tariff and an American industry.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"Lady Audley's Secret" will be presented at Casino theater, Ramona park, tonight, and the indications are for a packed house. Miss Lillian O. Bowen, as Lady Audley, will win new laurels, while Mr. George W. Wright, as Luke Marks, the bibulous inn-keeper, who learns the secret of the would-be murderer, and uses his knowledge to pecuniary advantage, displays something more than his usual ability as a delineator of character, according to those who have seen the rehearsals. Robert Audley, the relentless lawyer, who ferrets the matter to the bottom, is ably portrayed by Mr. Harry Driscoll, who won so much popularity last week as Victor Laurent in "The Duke's Daughter." Mr. Oliver Fiske, the popular comedian, assumes the character of the belated husband, George Talboys, who disappears from public notice in the celebrated well scene, through the assistance of his wife, Lady Audley, after finding her married to Sir Michael Audley, which is taken by Mr. Paul Fehlingsch, Alie Audley and Phoebe Marks will be played respectively by Misses Laura Denne and Miss Nellie McDonough. Manager Foye will not take a character in this play. A treat is assured all who attend.

Tonight the Phillips Stock Company will present "Taggs, the Outcast," at LaBelle Park, with Agnes Carleton-Phillips in the title role, and a cast otherwise very strong. A large crowd is expected to go out.

"Shooting the chute" is an amusement that Paducahans had a chance for the first time in their lives to enjoy at home Sunday, and a large crowd at LaBelle Park enjoyed the pastime. It is a class of sport very popular in other cities, and no doubt will become so in Paducah.

Since his arrival in London Mr. Daniel Froman has accepted for immediate production at the Lyceum Theater, New York, a four-act comedy, dealing with modern London society. It is by Louis N. Parker, author of "Rosemary," and is entitled "The Happy Life." Mr. Froman has secured the American rights of a new play by Edward Rose, entitled "The Days of Old," which will be produced at the St. James Theater, and "The Princess and the Butterfly," both of which he will bring out next season at the New York Lyceum.

At the beginning of next season there will be but two Hoyt & McKee companies on the road, one in "A Black Sheep," and one in Mr. Hoyt's latest comedy, "A Stranger in New York." This latter play will be out for only two months, and in November goes to Hoyt's theater, New York, for a run. It is fair to expect the wonderful record made by "A Trip to Chinatown."

Paducah people are now leaning in earnest how to appreciate the summer theaters, and wonder how they have managed to get along without them in past summers, a cool ride to a cool park where a performance, first-class in every respect, can be witnessed free of charge, is not to be sneezed at, and every night carload after carload of the best people of the city are drawn out to each of the parks. It is decidedly the most enjoyable way to spend the sultry evenings, and often the only comfortable way.

Mr. Harry Driscoll, who is leading man at the Casino, is not a stranger in Paducah, but was here several years ago with the Baldwin-Melville Company. Mr. Driscoll has never married, because, as he likes to laugh and say, he fell in love with Mary Anderson fourteen years ago, and is still true to her. He has a scrap book, which, judging from its size, contains every thing ever printed about the celebrated actress.

It is likely that a comedy will be put on at the Casino the latter part of the week, or some time soon, to give Miss Laura Denne, the soubrette, a chance. Miss Denne has a fine voice, is a splendid dancer, and is destined to become favorite in Paducah this summer.

It is rumored that Manager Phillips, of the LaBelle park stock company, will start out with a company of his own at the close of the summer season. Mr. Phillips is a young actor of ability, who never encounters difficulty in signing with any company, and is as versatile as he is popular. It is said that he has been negotiating with a local newspaper man to go out in advance of him.

"Queen Esther," under the direction of Fred C. Davis, and produced by local talent, will be given at Morton's opera house Thursday night, under the auspices of the First Christian church. It is thought no improbable that a subsequent presentation will be given at one of the park theaters.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"Lady Audley's Secret" will be presented at Casino theater, Ramona park, tonight, and the indications are for a packed house. Miss Lillian O. Bowen, as Lady Audley, will win new laurels, while Mr. George W. Wright, as Luke Marks, the bibulous inn-keeper, who learns the secret of the would-be murderer, and uses his knowledge to pecuniary advantage, displays something more than his usual ability as a delineator of character, according to those who have seen the rehearsals. Robert Audley, the relentless lawyer, who ferrets the matter to the bottom, is ably portrayed by Mr. Harry Driscoll, who won so much popularity last week as Victor Laurent in "The Duke's Daughter." Mr. Oliver Fiske, the popular comedian, assumes the character of the belated husband, George Talboys, who disappears from public notice in the celebrated well scene, through the assistance of his wife, Lady Audley, after finding her married to Sir Michael Audley, which is taken by Mr. Paul Fehlingsch, Alie Audley and Phoebe Marks will be played respectively by Misses Laura Denne and Miss Nellie McDonough. Manager Foye will not take a character in this play. A treat is assured all who attend.

Tonight the Phillips Stock Company will present "Taggs, the Outcast," at LaBelle Park, with Agnes Carleton-Phillips in the title role, and a cast otherwise very strong. A large crowd is expected to go out.

"Shooting the chute" is an amusement that Paducahans had a chance for the first time in their lives to enjoy at home Sunday, and a large crowd at LaBelle Park enjoyed the pastime. It is a class of sport very popular in other cities, and no doubt will become so in Paducah.

Since his arrival in London Mr. Daniel Froman has accepted for immediate production at the Lyceum Theater, New York, a four-act comedy, dealing with modern London society. It is by Louis N. Parker, author of "Rosemary," and is entitled "The Happy Life." Mr. Froman has secured the American rights of a new play by Edward Rose, entitled "The Days of Old," which will be produced at the St. James Theater, and "The Princess and the Butterfly," both of which he will bring out next season at the New York Lyceum.

At the beginning of next season there will be but two Hoyt & McKee companies on the road, one in "A Black Sheep," and one in Mr. Hoyt's latest comedy, "A Stranger in New York." This latter play will be out for only two months, and in November goes to Hoyt's theater, New York, for a run. It is fair to expect the wonderful record made by "A Trip to Chinatown."

Paducah people are now leaning in earnest how to appreciate the summer theaters, and wonder how they have managed to get along without them in past summers, a cool ride to a cool park where a performance, first-class in every respect, can be witnessed free of charge, is not to be sneezed at, and every night carload after carload of the best people of the city are drawn out to each of the parks. It is decidedly the most enjoyable way to spend the sultry evenings, and often the only comfortable way.

Mr. Harry Driscoll, who is leading man at the Casino, is not a stranger in Paducah, but was here several years ago with the Baldwin-Melville Company. Mr. Driscoll has never married, because, as he likes to laugh and say, he fell in love with Mary Anderson fourteen years ago, and is still true to her. He has a scrap book, which, judging from its size, contains every thing ever printed about the celebrated actress.

It is likely that a comedy will be put on at the Casino the latter part of the week, or some time soon, to give Miss Laura Denne, the soubrette, a chance. Miss Denne has a fine voice, is a splendid dancer, and is destined to become favorite in Paducah this summer.

It is rumored that Manager Phillips, of the LaBelle park stock company, will start out with a company of his own at the close of the summer season. Mr. Phillips is a young actor of ability, who never encounters difficulty in signing with any company, and is as versatile as he is popular. It is said that he has been negotiating with a local newspaper man to go out in advance of him.

"Queen Esther," under the direction of Fred C. Davis, and produced by local talent, will be given at Morton's opera house Thursday night, under the auspices of the First Christian church. It is thought no improbable that a subsequent presentation will be given at one of the park theaters.

"Buffalo Bill" will visit Paducah some time next fall. This man of prowess started out with a wild west show, but it is said that his exhibition is almost entirely limited to occidental features. He was here several years ago, then in the zenith of his fame and popularity, and has since gradually waned in favor.

W. J. Carlton, who was for a time manager of the LaBelle Park Stock Company, last year, is said to be manager of a company in Illinois this summer. He was with one of the "Fast Mail" companies last season.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

An Interesting Communication On the Penitentiary Matter.

Edinville, June 11, 1897.

Dear Sir: I wish to call your attention to an article headed, "The Truth Told," in the Edinville "Tale of Two Cities."

Now, I cannot conceive of "headlines" that would be further from the truth than the one referred to. It seems that the editor has arraigned the chaplain before the public, and in the bitterest terms condemns his conduct on the occasion of Flower Mission, which took place here in the prison on last Sunday.

Now, in as brief a manner as possible, I desire to state the facts as they actually occurred on that occasion, and at the same time point out some of the errors as published in the "Tale of Two Cities," said to be published at Kuttawa, and has at least some circulation in Lyon county.

The officials at this place have taken great interest in the Flower Mission and they have spared no pains or expense to make it a day of gladness for both the prisoners and visitors. On the occasion of Flower mission which occurred here on June 6th, the program had been arranged by the ladies in connection with the chaplain. Services to begin at 1 p. m., chaplain having charge of the program. The article referred to states that the W. C. T. U. of this place had prepared resolutions of thanks to State Clerk Canfield for courtesies shown them and that they were offered at the close of the service and that Chaplain Kerr arose, and opposed the resolutions and said that the offering of such resolutions was an insult to the other crusaders of the prison. It further says that at this juncture Warden Happy chimed in blarney of malice and jealousy, opposing the resolution and sent a note up to Kerr and upon reading same Kerr pocketed the resolution and I want to state here that no resolution from the W. C. T. U. was read or asked to be read on that occasion; secondly, no such resolutions as are published in the "Tale of Two Cities" were ever presented or read on that occasion; thirdly, Chaplain Kerr made no public statement as to the resolutions; fourthly, Warden Happy did not send nor did Chaplain Kerr receive a note, on that occasion; fifthly, that the assembly did not disperse in disorder, but retired quietly in their places until dismissed.

On the evening previous to the Flower Mission service, two ladies were together that usually take part in Flower Mission work, prepared a resolution to offer on that occasion, not in the name of the W. C. T. U., although one of them was a member. I know nothing of their intention. I have always regarded them as christian ladies of high standing, and of the ladies was not present, the chaplain had no knowledge of the resolutions although having charge of the program. When we were nearly through the program, Rev. N. W. Utley stated that a paper had been handed to him with a request that he read it at the same time turning to the chaplain and asking if he would read the paper. The chaplain was not so impolitic as to take it from him and read it not knowing what it was; whereupon Rev. Utley read the following:

"The ladies having charge at Flower Mission tender to Mr. Canfield by a sincere vote of thanks their deep appreciation of courtesies extended on the occasion of Flower Mission observance in the month of June 1896-97."

The chaplain believing that the ladies had misunderstood how the "treat" was furnished arose and stated that Mr. Canfield was entitled to credit for all the courtesies that he had extended but that the "treat" was furnished by the Warden and paid for from the "Library Fund." At this juncture some lady suggested that Mr. Canfield had a "treat" at the gate whereupon the chaplain stated that he had had no notice of any such treat.

Warden Happy sat quietly in the audience with children during the entire service without moving from his seat or uttering a single word. After the resolution and explanation by the Chaplain a song was sung and the benediction pronounced. I do not know why the warden should be arraigned in the manner that he is since he has done all in his power to make Flower Mission a day of pleasantness, granting the ladies the right to set their own time and to prepare their own programme, in fact has granted every request, so far as we know, that the ladies have asked.

The chaplain has rendered every assistance in his power, assisting the ladies in preparing the program, going from house to house, in the town, begging flowers, paying the money out of his own pocket for expressage of flowers shipped from a distance. Mr. Canfield was not present on Flower Mission occasion, nor was he present in assisting the ladies to prepare for the same, nor did Chaplain Kerr, who had charge of the program, have any notice of any resolution as a part of the program.

The above are the facts as they actually occurred. Should any of the readers have any doubts I refer them to any lady or gentleman who was present on that occasion.

Yours most respectfully,

D. F. KEUR, Chaplain.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

Capt. Ben Howard, the jolly skipper of the Dick Fowler, was seated on the deck a day or two since when the boat passed Belgrade Landing, a small way landing on the Mississippi that boasts redoubt land there, although they pass by the shore. It is just this side of Metropolis.

"You see that house," said the captain, pointing to a small structure plainly visible through the rapidly fading trees. "Well, I was born and raised there," he continued,
"and forty-nine years ago ran away from home."

"The crowd evinced much interest to elicit the bit of history from the accommodating captain, who probably did not know a newspaper man was in the crowd.

"I was a pretty big boy then, about 15 years old and worked hard on the farm. One day I got mad at my father, and scheming around until nearly dark, I volunteered to go and feed some stock, and that was the last time any of them saw me for nine years. I had planned to run away from home, and doing so that night I made my way to the nearest landing, and hailed the first steambot. I shipped on the "Countess" as deck cleaner and general utility boy, and they dubbed me "Rube." I was paid $12 a month at first, but after several months the captain went to the clerk one day and asked, "How much are you paying Rube?"

"Twelve dollars," was the reply.
"Well, give him ten hereafter," and then he got therefor, but
"Rube" didn't complain.

"About a year after the last transaction, when pay day rolled around one month the captain asked, "How much are you paying 'Rube' now?"

"Ten dollars," was the answer.

"Well, give him eighteen hereafter," he said as good as any of them, the captain said, and "Rube" experienced his first raise of salary. He did not go back home for nine years.
He has stuck to the river all these years, has the popular Capt. Ben, and now has the reputation of being the sprightliest, most active, capable on the Ohio, despite his years, and is on the roof of one of the fastest steamers.

Speaking of those who are always abusing the street roller, for political purposes or through ignorance, the council might retort to the disgruntled soreheads as the "mountain member" of the legislature did to his colleagues at Frankfort before the war.

Commonwealth's Attorney W. F.
Bradshaw was sitting in front of his office on legal row Saturday when he told the story:

"He was a gruff, ignorant sort of fellow," began the lawyer, "and was one of the mountain members of the legislature before the war. He went down to Frankfort to attend the session for the first time, having just been elected. He remained throughout the session, and not coming to the assembly for the first time, he said in a rather disgusted, contemptuous tone, 'I don't know what you fellows think my use, but whatever it is, by G—d, I think a d—d sight less than you!'"

It is something remarkable, and not at all a credit to the intelligence and progressive spirit of the citizens of Paducah, or more properly some of them, to hear the sewerage question discussed. It is an absolute fact that a great many citizens are opposed to any sewerage system at any time and any price. They are simply against sewerage, and claim that the city doesn't need it. In most instances these people are really sincere, and to hear them talk one would be led to believe that they were not used to living in a civilized community, but in some isolated rural spot where sewerage is unheard of.

As usual when the swimming season arrives, and the incorrigible snail boy daily subjects his father to the danger of expending more or less money for a coffin and several carriages, there is considerable complaint of men and boys going into the river in a nude condition in broad daylight and inside the city limits.

There is a law against it, but the law is persistently disregarded by a great many boys and men who have been told countless times that such conduct is forbidden by law.

It is almost impossible for a police force, so limited as the one in Paducah, to enforce a law that embraces so much, and requires surveillance in so many different places, and the people living in the vicinity of such places, and annoyed by the reprehensible conduct, should report names to the police, and a few fines would soon suffice to destroy the practice.

Speaking of telegraph operators, it is astonishing how many active and inactive manipulators of the key and sounder there are in Paducah. A railroad man was counting them up the other day, and states that nearly all the prominent railroad officials among these are Agents Stovall, R.
C. Watkins, A. T. Sahlin, of the Illinois Central, Agent Frank Teuchout, C. B. Dorris, and Sup. Hills, of the N. C. & St. L., and in addition several of the conductors. Among these were formerly operators are H. J.
Craft, at one time chief dispatcher here, Conductor Dawes and Conductor Will Thompson. There are about eleven operators in regular employment here, including five train dispatchers, four office operators, and one stock exchange man and an operator in Agent Teuchout's office. In addition there are at least a dozen "hams," "phags," and retired operators who have found more pleasant and remunerative employment in Paducah, or else have picked it up as a pastime and never used it at all.

ralled on the Levee.

People.

NOTES.

Business on the wharf was very little this morning, the arrivals and departures numbered only three boats and consequently things were extremely quiet in that vicinity.

The two packets, Dick and Joe Powder, after the short retirement of Sunday, were out on time this morning, the former for Cairo and the latter for Evansville.

The Ashland City left this morning for Danville. She was doing very little business.

The City of Clarksville brought down an excursion yesterday from Goldsboro. She had a nice crowd and returned in the afternoon.

The City of Chattanooga and Geo.
H. Cowling had colored excursions up the Cumberland river yesterday.

The H. W. Buntfort, owing to lying over at Nashville until late Saturday night, was somewhat late in arriving out of the Cumberland this morning. She had not put in her appearance at a very late hour but is expected to be in and out again for Clarksville before dark tonight.

The towboat R. A. Speed goes up the Cumberland river today after a few of ties.

The Peter Houtz left early yesterday morning up the Cumberland river after a tow of ties.

BENTON, KY.

News is scarce in and around our little town.

J. M. Johnston, Clint Strow, Roland Walker, Henry Wilson, Henry Hyatt and Jim Jones, of Benton, and Joe Kemp, of near here, went to Clear Pond Saturday, to enjoy themselves a couple of days fishing and hunting.

Mr. Taylor, candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this district, was out here mixing with the voters this week. I think Mr. Taylor is qualified to attend the duties of the office to which he aspires; besides he strictly for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. He is on the right track in this view of a large majority of the voters of this county and will be a sure winner at the November election so far as they are concerned.

I don't think the Jack will bray any more. I think he calked himself the first round; and that little hatched-faced dude that's trying to help the Jack out of his troubles by putting him in this worthless little sheet that's published here, had better let up or I will give him his full name and tell what I know about him and he will need the Jack to help him out of his little troubles. Jack and Dude think it's just simply awful that I voted for McKinley and then write anything about a gold bug Democratic convention and let it be published in a Republican paper. These gold bugs put those suckers up to say what they did. As some of them are candidates they didn't want to say anything themselves, and they haven't got any use at all for a Republican or a Republican paper.

They have no use for any but a Democratic paper and it has got to be all red and a yard wide. For instance, they want something on the order of the Louisville Post.
They are great friends of the Post, but since come to think didn't the Post go square back on the Chicago platform, jump on the old bolters, Palmer and Breckner, and work for McKinley like a hero? I think it did.

What "voter" said about the primary in the Hardin Star was a plenty, but, "voter," if they jump on you, and you need any help, let me know and I will come to your aid for I have a good roast to store for them.

HENSE HARRIS.

His Announcement as a Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.

In another column the Sun today announces Hense G. Harris as a candidate for City Prosecuting Attorney. Hense Harris is one of the brightest as well as most popular young men in the city. He is worthy of the position and no doubt will receive the consideration he so justly deserves at the hands of the voters.

He submits his claim to the action of the Republican Convention.

Mr. Harris is a hard worker for the party and will be a credit to the ticket if he gets the nomination.

There is no question of his election as no one at the bar has more friends among the independent voters.

COMMENCEMENT TO-NIGHT.

Morton's Opera House to Hold a Brilliant Assemblage.

Seventeen Graduates to Receive Their Diplomas Before the Footlights.

The annual commencement of the Paducah high school will take place tonight at Morton's opera house, when the entire school will be present. The graduates are: John W. Young, Mary J. Young, W. H.
Young, and John W. Young. While some will no doubt experience a pang of regret at leaving home, yet teaching and school duties, perhaps this will be outweighed by the feeling of satisfaction that always follows the completion of an often unpleasant task.

Commencement may not mean what it used to mean (the graduate, but it is a pretty custom, and one that should never be allowed to die.

Tonight the sweet and genuine just as she has done of old, will stand before an audience of admiring friends, attired in immaculate white, an emblem of her own spotless man-nitude, and receive her diploma, which will be laid away, neatly with the long ribbon, perhaps so far forgotten in the dull career of real life. The class this year is unusually large, and is composed of bright, talented young people, who are well equipped to battle for success in life. The names of the graduates are:

Misses Jessie Mercedes Foltz, Ar-rend Pearl Sanders, Zoe A. Hannan, Ruby Marie Piles, Emma Marion Dal-val, Margaret C. J. Donigan, Bertie M. Graves, Nellie Schotta, Angie Lee Thomas, Myrtle Vivian Bilson, Lucie Broadwell Holloway, Jennie
B. Anderson, Maud M. Baker, Sally Ray Ragdale, Fannie Grigsby, Messrs. Walter A. Hawk and George M.
Haley.

Supply and Demand.

High prices increase the production of any article, and lessens the consumption; hence low prices decrease the production and increase the consumption.

Many manufacturers expected better times and bigger sales and made too much stuff for the spring and summer trade of 1897. The manufacturer's way out of such a dilemma is to cut the price to induce somebody to use up the stuff.
We are among the few cash buyers who have bought up these goods to sell to our customers at half prices. Out of self defense many merchants will claim to own goods at our low prices, but the only safe way is to come here and see.

Laws are here for 2c and 3c and 4-10c, that were double.

Beautiful wash goods we have seen elsewhere for 10c, are now here for 5c a yard.

Handsome ones that were 20c are here for 10c.

Taffeta mulls that were 25c early are now here for 12 1/2c.

Leather belts, all colors, that were 50c, now here for 25c.

Ladies' vests, that were 50c, now 3c. Very handsome vests are here for 7 and 8c. Bleached table linens that were 40c now here for 25c.

Other table linens very low. Hand towels at 1, 9 and 12 1/2c; very special. Dotted swisses and dotted dimities, manufacturer's seconds that you can hardly tell from the first, worth 20c, for 10c a yard.

Choice apron check ginghams at 3 1/2, 4 and 5 1/2c a yard. Cali-cuffs at 1 1/2, 2, 3 and 4c a yard.

18c unbleached 10-4 sheeting for 12 1/2c a yard. Ready made bleached sheets for 35c to 45c, worth double.

Salt finished yind wide bleached domestic at 4, 4 1/2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 1/2c a yard. Ladies' fast black hose that were 25c, now 12 1/2c.

The world's unequalled seamless fast black 3c a yard. The early season's 10c sort, now four pairs

Narrow Escape of a Boy Near Mayfield—Other Railroad News.

Supt. W. J. Harlan and family, arrived at noon in a private car from Nashville, where they visited the exposition. They came here, however, direct from Dawson, and will probably return home tomorrow.

Saturday as the passenger train which left here at 12:20 p. m. near Dawson, the form of a boy was seen lying at the side of the track the train stopped and the crew went back to render necessary assistance, supposing that the boy had been struck and killed. It developed, however, that his name was Collier, and he had an epileptic fit on the track just before the train reached him, and was pulled off just in the nick of time by a companion.

This morning a force of workmen began tearing off the roof of the Broadway freight office, preparatory to putting on a new one. A large ventilator and sky light will be placed over the dispatchers' room.

Trainmaster J. J. Flynn and wife have returned from the Nashville exposition.

Joe Graves, a bridge carpenter of Wingo, employed by the I. C., was brought to the city yesterday and taken to the railroad hospital, suffering from congestion of the stomach.

Mr. J. J. Swanson is acting as car regular inspector, Mr. Elmore.

Hon. W. S. Wilson, formerly of the Cairo Short Line, but now in the city business, came over this morning from St. Louis.

GE! BUT IT'S HOT!

The Thermometer Crawls Up to 100 Degrees.

It Seldom Gets Hotter This Side of Hades.

The sweltering heat of the past three days has been almost unbearable, and yesterday and today the mercury has hovered uncomfortably near 100 degrees.

At noon yesterday the thermometer at Ochleschneider & Walker's and Nagel's registered 98 degrees, while the one at Wallerstein's was at the 100 mark. Today there has been little change, and there is a perceptible boom in the soda water trade and a great increase in street car traffic.

About the only way to keep cool today was by sitting under electric fans or bonfiring a rapidly moving street car.

Rain is predicted, however, and a storm following such heat would not be a great surprise.
